PALA, CA – Pala Casino Spa Resort is excited to present three legendary and extraordinary acts—the Dazz Band, Con Funk Shun, and Everyday People on Saturday, February 11, performing live indoor at the Events Center.

The Dazz Band, formerly Kinsman Dazz, was the first R & B group from Cleveland, Ohio to win a Grammy Award for Best Performance by a Group or Duo for their smash hit “Let It Whip,” written and produced by Reggie Andrews on Motown Records. Led by Saxophonist Bobby Harris, the group went on to score a total of 20 hits on Billboards’ R & B and Pop charts and achieved Platinum and Gold status. The Dazz Band performed on popular television shows throughout the 80’s and 90’s such as Soul Train, Solid Gold, and American Bandstand. Hits like “Let It Whip,” “Joystick,” “Heartbeat,” “Party Right Here,” “Swoop,” “Let It All Blow,” “Keep It Live,” and more stood the test of time as over a million monthly listeners continue to download and stream Dazz Band music across the globe.

First formed as a backing band, Con Funk Shun became one of the premiere party-funk groups of their time before turning to R&B ballads in the early '80s. Aside from being the primary musicians on all their albums, the band also contributed to each of their albums as writers, arrangers, and producers. Con Funk Shun hit the top of the R&B charts with "Ffun," written as a tribute to funk band Brick. The group found much success over a ten-year span, releasing one hit after another (including "Shake and Dance with Me," "Chase Me," "Got to Be Enough") and were a popular concert attraction. In the '80s, Con Funk Shun began receiving more fame for their ballads and re-entered the R&B Top Ten with "Baby I'm Hooked (Right into Your Love)," "Electric Lady," and "Burnin' Love."

Everyday People - a Neo Sly Stone Experience is a crossover, multi-genre (funk, r&b, rock, jazz) blast from the past, that takes its audience on a retrospective of the hits from legendary singer/songwriter/producer Sly Stone and all he has influenced. The musicianship is stellar, including hits such as "Hot Fun in the Summertime," "Dance to the Music," "Family Affair," "Everyday People," "ThankU Falletinme B Mice Elf" and much more. Additionally, Everyday People cleverly illustrates just how Sly influenced Prince, Michael Jackson, Janet Jackson, The Rolling Stones, and countless others.

The show will start at 7:30pm. Reserved tickets are $55, and general admission tickets are $25. This show is just one of the impressive lineup of headliner and tribute concerts that will be held at the Events Center and Starlight Theater.
